Re: Thomas Laumann, et al. v. National Hockey League, et al., 12-cv-1817 (SAS)
Fernanda Garber, et al. v. Office of the Commissioner of Baseball, et al.,
12-cv-3704 (SAS)

I write on behalf of the Plaintiffs in accordance with the Court's directive of May 8, 2014, regarding briefing of the defendants' motions for summary judgment and the exhibits submitted therewith.

We are continuing to work to prepare our papers for filing on Tuesday, May 27. In response to your instructions, we have substantially reduced the number and volume of exhibits. Having reviewed the defendants' revised submissions, we currently intend to submit fewer than 40 non-deposition exhibits. We have attempted to produce only the pages in each exhibit that are required, and the total number of pages should not exceed 125. We intend to submit approximately 60 pages of deposition transcripts. We will file only two declarations, one of which will be a lawyer declaration attaching exhibits. The other will be excerpts of the declaration of economist Roger Noll, which, in its complete form, is 121 pages long, plus exhibits. We have prepared a 57-page version of the declaration that addresses the most pertinent, disputed issues with appropriate context. That includes the three pages whose inclusion was requested by the DirecTV defendants. See DirecTV Mem. 2 n.1.

While the extent of the exhibits is distributed differently, reflecting the different postures of the parties, the total volume of exhibits that Plaintiffs propose submitting is less than the defendants submitted in their revised filings.

If the foregoing is acceptable to the Court, Plaintiffs ask the Court so order.

Respectfully Submitted

Edward Diver
